BACKGROUND

A. The University of Birmingham Guild of Students (“the Guild”) is a students’ union within the meaning of the Education Act 1994. The Guild is devoted to the educational interests and welfare of its Members. This Memorandum and the Guild’s Articles of Association have been structured to give the Board of Trustees reasonable authority to manage the affairs of the Guild in a professional manner. The Members enjoy the right, which must be exercised in accordance with charity law, to elect a proportion of the Trustees and to dismiss all of the Trustees. The Board of Trustees will give the utmost consideration to the views of the Members.

B. The Guild will seek at all times to:

1.1 ensure that the diversity of its membership is recognised and that equal access is available to all Members of whatever origin or orientation;

1.2 pursue its aims and objectives independent of any political party or religious group; and

1.3 pursue equal opportunities by taking positive action within the law to facilitate participation of groups discriminated against by society.

C. Under the Education Act 1994, the University of Birmingham has a statutory duty to ensure that the Guild operates in a fair and democratic manner and is required to ensure proper accountability for its finances. This Memorandum and the Guild’s Articles of Association contain provisions to recognise where the Guild must seek the approval and direction of the University of Birmingham in furtherance of this statutory duty. The Guild therefore works alongside the University of Birmingham in ensuring that the affairs of the Guild are properly conducted and that the educational and welfare needs of the Guild’s Members are met.

19.5 the Trustees reasonably believe he or she is suffering from mental disorder and is incapable of acting and they resolve that he or she be removed from office;

19.6 he or she resigns by notice to the Guild (but only if at least three Trustees will remain in office when the notice of resignation is to take effect); or

19.7 he or she fails to attend three consecutive meetings of the Trustees and in the opinion of the Trustees there are no mitigating circumstances for that failure and the Trustees therefore resolve that he or she be removed for this reason.

Removal of Trustees by the Members

20. The office of a Trustee save for the University Trustee shall be vacated if a motion of no confidence in the Trustee is passed by a simple majority of Members voting in a Referendum, provided that 10% or more of Members cast a vote in the Referendum. Such a motion shall only be triggered by a petition of no confidence signed by at least 3% of Members.

21. Where the Trustee removed under Article 20 above is a Sabbatical Trustee, he or she shall be removed both from his or her remunerated sabbatical position and as a Trustee.
Removal of Trustees by the Board

22. Subject to the Chair who may exercise a right of veto, the office of a Sabbatical Trustee or a Student Trustee shall be vacated if a unanimous resolution of no confidence is passed by the Sabbatical Trustees and the Student Trustees. 24.2 a Trustee removed from office shall be entitled to appeal the decision to remove him or her to an Appeal Committee within 14 days of the resolution. The selection of the members of the Appeal Committee and its procedures will be as set out in the Bye-Laws.

Replacement of Trustees

25. In the event of a vacancy on the Board of Trustees:

25.2 if a Student Trustee resigns, is disqualified or is removed from office, a Student Trustee shall be elected to the vacancy in accordance with Article 11.

26. If a Sabbatical Trustee resigns, is disqualified or removed from office, the vacancy shall remain until the next annual Sabbatical Officer elections are held, or as is otherwise provided for in the Bye-Laws.

27. If a person resigns between their election to the role of Sabbatical Trustee and becoming a Sabbatical Trustee, the vacancy shall be filled in accordance with the Bye-Laws. For the avoidance of doubt, any person elected under this Article shall be required to assume any other responsibilities of the Sabbatical Trustee.

Powers of Trustees

28. Subject to the Companies Acts, the Education Act, the Memorandum and the Articles and the Bye-Laws, the business of the Guild shall be managed by the Trustees who may exercise all the powers of the Guild. No alteration of the Memorandum or Articles shall invalidate any prior act of the Trustees which would have been valid if that alteration had not been made. The powers given by this Article shall not be limited by any special power given to the Trustees by the Articles and a meeting of Trustees at which a quorum is present may exercise all powers exercisable by the Trustees.

29. The Board of Trustees’ powers under Article 28 shall include but not be limited to ultimate responsibility for:

29.1 the management and administration of the Guild;
29.2 the governance of the Guild;
29.3 the budget of the Guild; and
29.4 strategy of the Guild.

30. The continuing Trustees or a sole continuing Trustee may act despite any vacancies in their number but while there are fewer Trustees than required for a quorum the Trustees may only act for the purpose of increasing the number of Trustees or of summoning a general meeting of the Guild.

31. All acts done by a person acting as a Trustee shall, even if afterwards discovered that there was a defect in his or her appointment or that he or she was disqualified from holding office or had vacated office be as valid as if such person had been duly appointed and was qualified and had continued to be a Trustee.

32. Subject to the Articles the Trustees may regulate their proceedings as they think fit.

Bye-Laws

33. The Board of Trustees shall have the power from time to time to make, repeal or alter Bye-Laws as to the management of the Guild and its working practices and affairs, the duties of any officers or employees of the Guild, as to the conduct of business by the Trustees or any committee and as to any matters or things within the powers or under the control of the Trustees, provided that such Bye-Laws shall not be inconsistent with the Companies Acts, the Memorandum, the Articles, the Guidance and Strategy Documents, the University of Birmingham’s Charter, Statutes, Ordinances, Regulations and, insofar as they derive from a statutory responsibility of the University of Birmingham, policies.

Guidance and Strategy Documents

34. The Trustees shall have the power from time to time to make, repeal or alter Guidance and Strategy Documents provided that such Guidance and Strategy Documents shall not be inconsistent with the Memorandum, the Articles, the University of Birmingham’s Charter, Statutes, Ordinances, Regulations and, insofar as they derive from a statutory responsibility of the University of Birmingham, policies.
Delegation of Trustees' powers

35. The Trustees may by power of attorney or otherwise appoint any person to be the agent of the Guild for such purposes and on such conditions as they determine.

36. The Trustees may delegate any of their powers or functions to any committee or the implementation of any of their resolutions and day to day management of the affairs of the Guild to any person or committee in accordance with the conditions set out in these Articles.

Delegation to Committees

37. In the case of delegation to committees:

37.1 the resolution making that delegation shall specify those who shall serve or be asked to serve on such committee (although the resolution may allow the committee to make co-options up to a specified number);

37.2 the composition of any such committee shall be entirely in the discretion of the Trustees and may comprise such of their number (if any) as the resolution may specify;

37.3 the deliberations of any such committee shall be reported regularly to the Trustees and any resolution passed or decision taken by any such committee shall be reported promptly to the Trustees and for that purpose every committee shall appoint a secretary;

37.4 all delegations under this Article shall be variable or revocable at any time;

37.5 the Trustees may make such regulations and impose such terms and conditions and give such mandates to any such committee as they may from time to time think fit;

37.6 no committee shall knowingly incur expenditure or liability on behalf of the Guild except where authorised by the Trustees or in accordance with a budget which has been approved by the Trustees.

38. For the avoidance of doubt, the Trustees may delegate all financial matters to any committee and may empower such committee to resolve upon the operation of any bank account according to such mandate as it shall think fit whether or not requiring a signature of any Trustee.

39. The meetings and proceedings of any committee shall be governed by the Articles regulating the meetings and proceedings of the Trustees so far as applicable and not superseded by any regulations made by the Trustees.

40. The Trustees in accordance with their powers under Article 36 shall establish the following committees (this is a non-exhaustive list) which must act in accordance with the Articles and the Bye-Laws:

40.1 Finance Committee;
40.2 HR Committee;
40.3 Audit and Risk Committee;
40.4 Appointments Panel.

Delegation of day to day management powers

41. In the case of delegation of the day to day management of the Guild to a Chief Executive or other managers or officers:

41.1 the delegated power shall be to manage the Guild by implementing the policy and strategy adopted by and within a budget approved by the Trustees and if applicable to advise the Trustees in relation to such policy, strategy and budget;

41.2 the Trustees shall provide the manager with a description of his or her role and the extent of his or her authority; and

41.3 the manager shall report regularly to the Trustees on the activities undertaken in managing the Guild and provide them regularly with management accounts sufficient to explain the financial position of the Guild.

Members’ Meetings

42. Articles 43 to 78 shall apply to Members’ meetings.

General meetings

43. The Trustees may call a general meeting at any time. The Trustees shall call a general meeting on receiving a requisition to that effect, signed by at least 5% of the Members having the right to attend and vote at general meetings. In default, the requisitionists may call a general meeting in accordance with the Companies Acts.

Length of notice

44. Unless Article 45 applies, all general meetings shall be called by at least 14 clear days’ notice unless the Companies Acts require a longer notice period.

45. A general meeting may be called by shorter notice if it is so agreed by a majority of the Members having a right to attend and vote at that meeting. Any such majority shall together represent at least 90% of the total voting rights at that meeting of all the members.

Contents of notice

46. Every notice calling a general meeting shall specify the place, day and time of the meeting, whether it is an extraordinary general or annual general meeting, and the general nature of the business to be transacted. If a special resolution is to be proposed, the notice shall include the proposed resolution and specify that it is proposed as a special resolution. In every notice calling a meeting of the Guild must appear with reasonable prominence a statement informing the Member of his or her rights to appoint another person as his or her proxy at a general meeting.

Service of notice

47. Notice of general meetings shall be given to every Member, to the Trustees and to the auditors of the Guild.

Manner of serving notice

48. Notice of general meetings shall be served in accordance with Articles 106 to 111.

Quorum

49. No business shall be transacted at any general meeting unless a quorum is present. 0.5% of the total membership entitled to vote upon the business to be transacted, each being a member or a proxy for a Member, shall be a quorum. If a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting, the meeting shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and place or to such time and place as the Trustees may determine and if at the adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting the members present shall be a quorum.

Attendance

50. A Trustee may, even if not a Member, attend and speak at any general meeting.

Chair

51. The Chair shall preside as chair of the meeting. However, if the Chair is not present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, the Trustees present shall elect one of their number to be chair and, if there is only one Trustee present he or she shall be chair (provided, in both cases, that the Trustee is willing to act). If no Trustee is willing to act as chair, or if no Trustee is present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, the Members present and entitled to vote shall choose one of their number to be chair save that a proxy holder shall not be entitled to be appointed chair.

Adjournment

52. The chair may, with the consent of a general meeting at which a quorum is present (and shall if so directed by the meeting), adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at an adjourned meeting other than business which might properly have been transacted at the meeting had the adjournment not taken place. When a general meeting is adjourned for 14 days or more, at least seven clear days’ notice shall be given specifying the time and place of the adjourned meeting and the general nature of the business to be transacted. Otherwise it shall not be necessary to give any such notice.
Poll

53. A resolution put to the vote of a general meeting shall be decided on a show of hands unless before or on the declaration of the result of the show of hands a poll is duly demanded. Subject to the Companies Acts, a poll may be demanded:

53.1 by the chair; or

53.2 by at least ten Members having the right to vote at the meeting; or

53.3 by a Member or Members representing at least one-tenth of the total voting rights of all the members having the right to vote at the meeting and a demand by a person as proxy for a Member shall be the same as a demand by the Member.

54. Unless a poll is duly demanded a declaration by the chair that a resolution has been carried or carried unanimously, or by a particular majority, or lost, or not carried by a particular majority and an entry to that effect in the minutes of the meeting shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against the resolution.

55. The demand for a poll may, before the poll is taken, be withdrawn but only with the consent of the chair and a demand so withdrawn shall not be taken to have invalidated the result of a show of hands declared before the demand was made.

56. A poll shall be taken as the chair directs and he or she may appoint scrutineers (who need not be Members) and fix a time and place for declaring the result of the poll. The result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.

57. A poll demanded on the election of the chair or on a question of adjournment shall be taken forthwith. A poll demanded on any other question shall be taken either forthwith or at such time and place as the chair directs not being more than 30 days after the poll is demanded. The demand for a poll shall not prevent the continuance of a meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which the poll was demanded. If a poll is demanded before the declaration of the result of a show of hands and the demand is duly withdrawn, the meeting shall continue as if the demand had not been made.

58. No notice need be given of a poll not taken forthwith if the time and place at which it is to be taken are announced at the meeting at which it is demanded. In any other case at least seven clear days’ notice shall be given specifying the time and place at which the poll is to be taken.

Votes

59. On a show of hands and on a poll every Member present in person or by proxy shall have one vote.

60. No Member may vote on any matter in which he or she has a Personal Interest, or debate on such a matter without in either case the permission of the majority of the Members present in person or by proxy at the meeting, such permission to be given or withheld without discussion.

61. A Member in respect of whom an order has been made by any court having jurisdiction (whether in the United Kingdom or elsewhere) in matters concerning mental disorder may vote, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, by his or her receiver, curator bonis or other person authorised in that behalf appointed by that court and any such receiver, curator bonis or other person may, on a poll, vote by proxy. Evidence to the satisfaction of the Trustees of the authority of the person claiming to exercise the right to vote shall be deposited at the registered office of the Guild, or at such other place as is specified in accordance with the Articles for the deposit of instruments of proxy, at least 48 hours before the time appointed for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the right to vote is to be exercised and in default the right to vote shall not be exercisable.

62. No objection shall be raised to the qualification of any voter except at the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is tendered, and every vote not disallowed at the meeting shall be valid. Any objection made in due time shall be referred to the chair whose decision shall be final and binding.

Proxies

63. A proxy shall be in the following form (or in a form as near thereto as circumstances allow or in any other form which is usual or which the Trustees may approve):

“University of Birmingham Guild of Students

64. Unless a proxy notice indicates otherwise, it must be treated as:

64.1 allowing the person appointed under it as a proxy discretion as to how to vote on any ancillary or procedural resolutions put to the meeting; and

64.2 appointing that person as a proxy in relation to any adjournment of the general meeting to which it relates as well as the meeting itself.

65. The appointment of a proxy and any authority under which it is executed or a copy of such authority in some way approved by the Trustees may:

65.1 in the case of an instrument in writing be deposited at the registered office of the Guild or at such other place within the United Kingdom as is specified in the notice convening the meeting or in any instrument of proxy sent out by the Guild in relation to the meeting at least 48 hours before the time for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the person named in the instrument proposes to vote; or

65.2 in the case of an appointment contained in an electronic communication, where an address has been specified for the purpose of receiving electronic communications:

65.2.1 in the notice convening the meeting; or

65.2.3 in any invitation contained in an electronic communication to appoint a proxy issued by the Guild in relation to the meeting

65.3 in the case of a poll taken more than 48 hours after it is demanded, be deposited or received as aforesaid after the poll has been demanded and at least 24 hours before the time appointed for the taking of the poll; or

65.4 where the poll is not taken forthwith but is taken not more than 48 hours after it was demanded, be delivered at the meeting at which the poll was demanded to the chair or to the Secretary or to any Trustee and an appointment of proxy which is not deposited, delivered or received in a manner so permitted shall be invalid.

66. A proxy for a Member who is entered on the register of Members as being a representative of an unincorporated association or body may be appointed either by the Member or by the unincorporated association or body.
67. A vote given or poll demanded by proxy shall be valid notwithstanding the previous termination of the authority of the person voting or demanding a poll unless notice of the termination was received by the Guild at the registered office of the Guild or at such other place at which the instrument of proxy was duly deposited or, where the appointment of the proxy was sent by electronic means, at the address at which such appointment was duly received before the commencement of the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote is given or the poll demanded or (in the case of a poll taken otherwise than on the same day as the meeting or adjourned meeting) the time appointed for taking the poll.

68. An appointment under a proxy notice may be revoked by delivering to the Guild a notice given by or on behalf of the person by whom or on whose behalf the proxy notice was given.
