"15 THINGS YOU NEED TO DO IN YOUR FINAL TWO TERMS AT BIRMINGHAM"

1. Make a wish to the Guild's Final Year Fairy on Twitter.
2. Have some 'Final Year Fun' trying something new at the Guild's Give it a Go Fair in January.
3. Have your own 'Final Year Fab' moment.
4. Join in with the survey season and pass on your 'Final Year Feedback'.
5. Visit the brand new Street Kitchen in the Guild and grab your 'Final Year Feast' offer.
6. Worried about 'Final Year Funds'? Get a part time job over the summer before that Grad scheme starts! Also get your CV checked before leaving!
7. Get the 'Final Year Feel-Good' factor - give back to your community and volunteer at one of the Guild's volunteering events.
8. Make the most of your 'Final Year Friends' - go to Grad Ball: laugh, cry and enjoy your last big night at Birmingham.
9. Tell us your favourite UOB memory as part of 'Final Year Freebies' and bag yourself a priority pass to get Grad Ball tickets 24 hours before general sale!
10. Limit the 'Final Year Frustration' of dissertations and deadlines, chill out at the Guild's Destressfest and speak to Guild Advice about combatting exam stress.
11. Get involved with campaigning & fundraising group events for a bit of 'Final Year Fundraising'.
12. Into sport? Try out a sports taster session and hone your 'Final Year Fitness'.
13. Looking for a 'Final Year Fling'? Play it safe and pick up your free condoms from Guild Advice.
14. Avoid 'Final Year Fails' - International Students can speak to Global Buddies about how to avoid plagiarism.
15. Donate your 'Final Year Furniture' to Junkbusters and raise money for charity.
